Leadership

Core Competencies Addressed in this Class:

Leading People
Identify characteristics, behaviors and practices of effective leaders.

Class Duration: One Day

Objective
The purpose of this class is to provide managers with an overview of current thinking about effective leadership; and with an opportunity to assess their leadership style or approach and their leadership strengths and limitations, to develop leadership strategies for their own organizations, and to interact with other leaders in public and other sectors.

Desired Learning Outcomes
By the end of this session you will be able to:

1. Describe the characteristics and behaviors of effective leaders.
2. Explain public perceptions of leadership by sector.
3. Recognize the basics of servant leadership.
4. Identify the five practices of effective leadership and specific ways in which you can demonstrate them.
5. Identify the six styles of leadership and the four frames of organizational leadership.
6. Develop a personal leadership philosophy.

Instructor: Robert Toomey is an outreach specialist in the Division of Continuing Studies at UW-Madison. Previously he served as training officer for several State of Wisconsin agencies, and he is a member of the Wisconsin State Training Council. He has a M.A. in Servant Leadership from Viterbo University (La Crosse), and a Doctorate in Educational Leadership from Edgewood College (Madison).