Welcome to Spoleto Festival USA May 29 – June 1, 2015
Join UW-Madison Continuing Studies as we return to North America’s premier performing arts festival in the gracious and richly historic city of Charleston, South Carolina.

Spoleto’s reputation for offering extraordinary work by the best artists in the world is well-deserved. It truly is a remarkable weekend of the arts in one of the friendliest and most welcoming cities in the country. Make this the year you find out what Spoleto Festival is all about!

Trip price and performance schedule will be known by early 2015. Please check our website for updates and further details.

In addition to these performances, your educational package includes a History of Charleston educational seminar and a guided city tour. In your free time you can visit important sites in early American and Civil War history, more than 150 art galleries, beautiful old churches, the Charleston Market, and many examples of fine early American architecture—and dine in some of the best restaurants in America!

This trip simply has it all!

Join us as we visit historic Charleston, SC, for southern hospitality and the performing arts at their finest!

For complete information please visit uwtravel.org or call Doug Whittle at 608-263-7787, or Kim Seymour at 608-262-3731, and we’ll send you everything that you need to sign up.

Follow us on Facebook—we actually go places

www.facebook.com/UWeducationaltravel

~ Live and Learn ~