Attention social workers, counselors, therapists, and human services providers: Fulfill your ethics and boundaries licensure requirements on the University of Wisconsin–Madison Campus!

Ethics and Boundaries

No Simple Answers: Advanced Ethics and Boundary Issues
Tuesday, March 8, 2016
Instructor: Gary Schoener, MEq

Ethics and Boundaries
Wednesday, March 9, 2016
Instructor: Gary Schoener, MEq

Mental Health Practice: Ethics, Boundaries, and the Law
Friday, April 1, 2016
Instructor: David Mays, MD, PhD

Ethics and Boundaries: Empathy Connection Therapy
Wednesday, April 13, 2016
Instructors: Jane Bartels, MEd; Doug Smith, MA, MSc, MDiv

All programs held at: Pyle Center, 702 Langdon St, Madison, Wis.
Get the continuing education hours you need to fulfill your requirements, and the up-to-date, relevant, and high-quality information you need to excel in your field.

To register online: continuingstudies.wisc.edu/ethics-boundaries
For more information: Email Kristi Obmascher: kristi.obmascher@wisc.edu

No Simple Answers: Advanced Ethics and Boundary Issues
Instructor: Gary Schoener, MEq
Tuesday, March 8, 2016
9am–4pm; Pyle Center, Madison, Wis.
Fee: $150
Credits: 0.6 CEU/6 hours of instruction
Level: Beginning to Advanced
Program: #2854

This program, for people with basic ethics and boundaries training, focuses on clinical decision-making in situations where ethical and boundary concerns prevent simple answers. Learn a variety of approaches, with an emphasis on developing alternative strategies, creating a sound pathway, and documenting effectively. Sharpen your decision-making skills regarding ethical dilemmas and boundary challenges, and examine case examples. Includes video and considerable discussion time.

Upon completion of this program participants will be able to:

• Implement appropriate boundaries with friends and clients in complicated cases.
• Discern what should be done when you receive complaints about other service providers.
• Establish decision-making processes for very complex cases.
• Identify appropriate behaviors for social contacts with clients and their families.

For more information or to register online: continuingstudies.wisc.edu/ethics-boundaries

Ethics and Boundaries
Instructor: Gary Schoener, MEq
Wednesday, March 9, 2016
9am–4pm; Pyle Center, Madison, Wis.
Fee: $80 per unit, $150 both units
Credits: 0.4 CEU/4 hours of instruction per unit; 0.8 CEU/8 hours of instruction both units; Level: Intermediate to Advanced
Program: #2855

Take one or both of these units designed for people with training in basic ethics and boundaries. Each unit includes case examples, video, and considerable discussion time.
Unit 1: Ethics and Social Media for Social Workers
8am-noon, registration 7:30-8am
0.4 CEU, $80; Unit 1 and Unit 2, 0.8 CEU, $150

Designed for people who have training in basic ethics and boundaries, this four-hour program examines ethical and boundary challenges encountered with social media, including the Internet, email, and texting. Explore the newest research and insights about social media’s impact on ethics and boundaries.

Upon completion of this program participants will be able to:
• Identify ethical and boundary challenges that occur on social media.
• Implement appropriate techniques for maintaining ethics and boundaries regarding the Internet and email.
• Determine the decision-making process when the law and professional ethics collide.

Unit 2: Cultural Issues and Ethics for Social Workers
1-5pm, registration 12:30-1pm
0.4 CEU, $80; Unit 1 and Unit 2, 0.8 CEU, $150

Designed for people who have training in basic ethics and boundaries, this four-hour program explores cultural issues while examining ethical and boundary challenges. This seminar teaches psychologists, social workers, and others ethics and boundaries within a cultural framework.

Upon completion of this program participants will be able to:
• Identify how cultural issues impact ethical and boundary challenges.
• Implement appropriate strategies for maintaining ethics and boundaries within a cultural framework.
• Determine the decision-making process when the law and professional ethics collide.

For more information or to register online: continuingstudies.wisc.edu/ethics-boundaries

Mental Health Practice: Ethics, Boundaries, and the Law

Instructor: David Mays, MD, PhD
Friday, April 1, 2016
9am–4pm, check in 8:30am; Pyle Center, Madison, Wis.
Fee: $150
Credits: 0.6 CEU/6 hours of instruction
Level: Beginning to Advanced
Program: #8757

All mental health professional organizations have standards defining ethical practice, including guidelines about boundaries, principled decision making, and professional behavior. At times, government bodies have also weighed in, setting certain legal requirements to which mental health professionals must adhere. Sometimes these standards are consistent with professional standards, such as with confidentiality. Sometimes they add new expectations, as with Tarasoff duties. And sometimes they conflict, as with conscience clauses. This workshop is about the relationship between legislative and professional ethical and practice standards. In this context, we will investigate the following legal principles: informed consent, confidentiality, right to refuse treatment, provider conscience clauses, and dual agency (duty to protect, communications with third parties, etc.).

Upon completion of this program participants will be able to:

- Define the basic components of informed consent, confidentiality, and the right to refuse treatment.
- Discuss how conscience clauses may conflict with professional codes of ethics.
- Describe the history of the duty to protect and Wisconsin law regarding a Tarasoff duty.
- Examine one's own risks of boundary crossings.
- Demonstrate how to clearly ask for consultation when an ethical dilemma arises at work.

For more information or to register online: continuingstudies.wisc.edu/ethics-boundaries

---

Ethics and Boundaries: Empathy Connection Therapy

Instructors: Jane Bartels, MEd and Doug Smith, MA, MSc, MDiv

Wednesday, April 13, 2016

9am–4pm; Pyle Center, Madison, Wis.

Fee: $150

Credits: 0.6 CEU/6 hours of instruction

Level: Beginning to Advanced

Program: #3320

Empathy Connection Therapy—a successful way to treat the addictive personality—uses practical tools and techniques aimed at therapist and client working together through compassion, empathy, and forgiveness toward self-worth. It is cooperative. Both the therapist and the client take risks and make sacrifices, growing together in the process.

Upon completion of this program participants will be able to:

- Compare and contrast traditional versus new approaches for working with addiction.
- Describe an alternative to the medical model of care that is based on our common pain, shortcomings, and imperfections.
- Define Empathy Connection Therapy and explain its benefits.
- Compare the advantages and disadvantages of self-disclosure within the therapeutic environment.
- Examine creative assessments and care plans to use when counseling people with addictions.

For more information or to register online: continuingstudies.wisc.edu/ethics-boundaries
Instructors

Jane Bartels (MEd) is a psychotherapist specializing in families affected by substance abuse. She runs groups for adults, adolescents, and children ages 7-12, and she provides individual therapy for mental health issues. Having undergone more than 30 treatments and hospitalizations due to her own alcohol addiction, now in total recovery, she has established her credibility with patients reluctant to work with therapists.

“I trust Jane. She’s a person who not only understands addiction, but has the ability to see me as a whole person. I love this in her.”

David Mays (MD, PhD) is a forensic psychiatrist and directed the forensic program at the Mendota Mental Health Institute in Madison, WI for 13 years. He serves on the clinical faculty at UW-Madison. Dr. Mays is the recipient of the Exemplary Psychiatrist Award from the National Alliance for the Mentally Ill, the Distinguished Service Award from the Alliance for the Mentally Ill of Dane County, and the Exceptional Performance Award from the Wisconsin Dept of Health and Family Services.

“I have been to several programs by David Mays and he always does an excellent job of presenting a thoughtful, compressive overview of the topics.”

Doug Smith (MA, MSc, MDiv) is a professional speaker, trainer, and consultant with more than 25 years of experience as a counselor, therapist, and health care administrator. He has written The Tao of Dying, Being a Wounded Healer, and several other books.

“I really feel inspired in my personal and professional life—Doug is wonderful and inspiring. Thank you.”

Gary Schoener (MEq) is a clinical psychologist and director of consultation and training for the Walk-In Counseling Center in Minneapolis, after having served as executive director for 37 years. He is an author, expert witness, and internationally known consultant and trainer on issues of ethics, professional boundaries, and risk management. His specific areas of focus are examination of these topics in health care, human services, and religious settings. Training materials and examples come from a wide range of fields and sources.

“Real examples given—applying common sense and humanity to difficult situations that we face. That was a refreshing perspective to hear. Best Ethics and Boundaries class I have been to.”
General Information

Location: Pyle Center, 702 Langdon St, Madison, Wis.

Times: See program description for start/end times. Please check in 30 minutes before start time.

Fee: Program fee includes instruction, materials, CEUs, and refreshments. Lunch is on your own.

Lodging and Parking: Please make your own travel and lodging arrangements. For directions and parking information: conferencing.uwex.edu/mtgspaces-pyle.cfm

Cancellation policy: If you are unable to attend or arrange for a substitute, you may obtain a refund minus the $25 administrative fee by contacting our registration department at least three business days before the program. If you cancel later than that or do not attend, you are responsible for the entire fee. To cancel or arrange for a substitute, please call 800-725-9692

Continuing Education Units/Approved Hours: 0.1 CEU = 1 hour of professional continuing education. Participants receive verification of attendance at the end of each program. UW-Madison Division of Continuing Studies is an acceptable continuing education provider for the following:

American Psychological Association (APA): University of Wisconsin–Madison, Division of Continuing Studies is approved by the American Psychological Association to sponsor continuing education for psychologists. University of Wisconsin–Madison Division of Continuing Studies maintains responsibility for programs and their content.

Social Workers: UW-Madison Division of Continuing Studies (provider #1042) is approved as a provider for social work continuing education by the Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) aswb.org, through the Approved Continuing Education (ACE) program. UW-Madison Division of Continuing Studies maintains responsibility for the program. ASWB Approval Period: April 27, 2013-April 27, 2016. Social workers should contact their regulatory board to determine course approval. Social workers participating in each program will receive six continuing education clock hours. WI, IA, IL, MI, and MN Boards of Social Work recognize ACE programs.

Counselors: UW-Madison Division of Continuing Studies is a National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC) Approved Continuing Education Provider (ACEP) #5990 and may offer NBCC approved clock hours for events that meet NBCC requirements. The ACEP solely is responsible for all aspects of the program.

Wisconsin Marriage and Family Therapists: qualifies as accredited university continuing education courses relevant to professional practice.

Wisconsin Substance Abuse Counselors: qualifies as continuing education courses consisting of relevant subject matter taught by qualified presenters.

Other professions: completion of each program qualifies for continuing education hours (see program description for hours provided). Contact your own board or organization for specific continuing education requirements.

If you have a disability and desire accommodations, please advise us when you register. Requests are confidential. Programs offered by UW-Madison in cooperation with UW-Extension.
Registration Form

Please register me for

☐ No Simple Answers: Advanced Ethics and Boundary Issues
   Tuesday, March 8, 2016; $150; #2854

☐ Ethics and Boundaries (Check applicable box below.)
   Wednesday, March 9, 2016; #2855
   ☐ Unit 1 (8am–noon); $80; ☐ Unit 2 (1-5pm); $80; ☐ Both Units (8am–5pm); $150

☐ Mental Health Practice: Ethics, Boundaries, and the Law
   Friday, April 1, 2016; $165; #8757

☐ Ethics and Boundaries: Empathy Connection Therapy
   Wednesday, April 13, 2016; $150; #3320

Are you a psychologist? ☐ Yes ☐ No
Are you a National Certified Counselor through the National Board for Certified Counselors? ☐ Yes ☐ No

ENTER 3-DIGIT BROCHURE CODE FROM MAIL PANEL: UW#

Contact information

NAME

TITLE

ORGANIZATION

MAILING ADDRESS

CITY / STATE / ZIP

PHONE (    ) EVENING/CELL PHONE

E-MAIL

Payment method

☐ Please bill my organization at the address above.
☐ Enclosed is my check payable to UW-Madison.
☐ Please charge to the following account:
   ☐ MasterCard ☐ VISA ☐ Am Ex ☐ Discover

CARD NO.   EXPIRES

CARDHOLDER'S NAME

Mail to: UW-Madison Continuing Studies Registrations
         Pyle Center, 702 Langdon St, Madison, WI 53706-1487

Call: 608-262-2451 or 800-725-9692 (Wisconsin Relay 711)

Fax: 608-265-3163 or 800-741-7416

Online: continuingstudies.wisc.edu/ethics-boundaries
         Phone, fax, or online registrations must include payments by credit card or purchase order.

DCS-IMC-12455-12/15
Ethics and Boundaries