University of Wisconsin-Madison

Continuing Studies Music Classes

Supply List—Fall 2016

Check the class list below to see if there are required items for the class(es) you have chosen. If you are expected to have textbook, instrument, or music stand for your class, please bring it to the first meeting. If you have questions, contact Jessica Courtier at jessica.courtier@wisc.edu or 608-890-3626.

Bluegrass for Beginners

No prior lessons or background necessary, but provide your own instrument. Open to guitar, mandolin, bass (acoustic or electric), five-string banjo, dobro, or fiddle.

Great Composers: Gesualdo, Liszt, Holst, and Barber

No supplies required.

Guitar 1

Please bring your own acoustic guitar to class. The instructor will provide study materials.

Guitar: Basic Blues

Please bring your own acoustic guitar to class. The instructor will provide study materials.

Guitar: Fingerstyle

Please bring your own acoustic guitar to class. The instructor will provide study materials.

Guitar: The Magic and Mystery of Drop-D Tuning

Please bring your own acoustic guitar to class. The instructor will provide study materials.

Harlem Renaissance

No supplies required.

Latin American Percussion

If you have your own instrument, please bring it to class. You may also use instruments provided by the instructors.

Music Theory for Playing by Ear

Bring your own portable instrument, pencil, and notepaper. Instructor will provide handouts.

Piano 1

Piano Off the Page 1

No supplies required.
Singing the Madrigals of Shakespeare’s Time

No supplies required.

String Ensemble and Skills 1

Please bring your instrument, rosin, a pencil, and your textbook (). Optional: You may also want to bring extra strings, a tuner, metronome, mute, and shoulder rest (violin, viola) or endpin holder (cello, bass).

Textbook information: Essential Elements for Strings, books 1 & 2, published by Hal Leonard. Available locally at Ward-Brodt Music or Heid Music and online at retailers such as Amazon.com.

String Ensemble and Skills 2

Please bring your instrument, rosin, a pencil, and your textbook. Optional: You may also want to bring extra strings, a tuner, metronome, mute, and shoulder rest (violin, viola) or endpin holder (cello, bass).

Vocal Jazz Workshop

Please wear comfortable clothes, bring a water bottle, and bring a yoga mat or blanket to put on the floor. Reminder: You will also need to purchase an instructional CD from the instructor.

Vocal Venture 1 (sections 1 & 2), Vocal Venture 2, and Vocal Venture 3

Please wear comfortable clothes, bring a water bottle, and bring a yoga mat or blanket to put on the floor. Reminder: You will also need to purchase an instructional CD from the instructor.

Women’s Musical Lives

No supplies required.